From the Principal:

Good Afternoon to all family and friends of Scaddan PS,

It’s already Week 5, almost half way through the term. NAPLAN is all over for another year and I would like to mention how wonderful the children were. They tried their Personal Best in all tests. Well done to you all. Last Friday saw us having a dress-up day; the children enjoyed wearing their pyjamas and for some, those cute fluffy slippers.

The weather is getting colder and for some reason, which I have never been able to fathom, children don’t seem to feel the cold as much. I often see children without their jumpers and shivering during the day. Please ensure your child brings their jumper to school to beat the cold and safe guard them from catching nasty colds when going from a nice warm classroom to a very cold outdoors. Also, we have been handing out jumpers and the stock is depleting. If you have a school jumper which was borrowed, please could you return it. Thank you.

A letter will be coming home shortly regarding a trip to Salmon Gums on Tuesday, 2nd June to see a puppet show and spend some quality time with the Salmon Gums students.

Have a great week!

Kind Regards
Diana
